

Credit Unions Rely on Repo Remarketing for Excellent Service

Customer Survey Shows Satisfaction Across the Board

Friday, April 6, 2012 - (Citrus Heights, CA) – The results are in. Repo Remarketing proudly announces that its partners are extremely satisfied. In an effort to ensure the company stays on target and fulfills the specific needs of its partners, Repo Remarketing conducts customer satisfaction surveys. The most recent survey was performed in March 2012. The results concluded that 96% of Repo Remarketing’s customers are satisfied with the services and deliverables, and of those, 45% +/- were ‘extremely satisfied’. Never in the history of the company have the ratings been higher.

Repo Remarketing is the nation's leading repossession and remarketing service. Lance Gartner, founder and CEO of Repo Remarketing stated, "We are a service organization with best practices that make every effort to meet and exceed the needs of our partners continually. Conducting a client survey is one way we gauge how we are doing. I am very proud of our staff as one client shared, ‘Repo Remarketing’s staff makes me feel like I am their only customer.’”

Repo Remarketing rated highly, from employee knowledge and cost of service to timeliness and convenience. The satisfaction survey showed the following:

According to our partners, Repo Remarketing "takes the headache out" of the repossession and liquidation process. The company's process and service simplifies procedures for its clients while saving the time and increasing profitability.
