Credit Union Resources, Inc. Signs Preferred Provider Agreement with Repo Remarketing

Relationship Benefits Credit Unions Through Collaboration of Services

Thursday, September 30, 2010 – (Citrus Heights, CA) – Credit Union Resources, Inc., an affiliated company of the Texas Credit Union League, has finalized an agreement with Repo Remarketing, Inc. a nationwide repossession and remarketing service, to be the association’s preferred provider of repossession and remarketing needs for Texas credit unions.

With Texas offices in Houston, Repo Remarketing is the leading Credit Union centric repossession/remarketing organization in the country. Lance Gartner, Founder and CEO of Repo Remarketing was quoted as saying “In the current economic climate it is critical for credit unions to streamline the repossession and remarketing processes. Credit unions are asked to do more with less. Repo Remarketing provides a high quality, seamlessly integrated system, from repossession through remarketing, reducing depreciation and freeing up valuable staff time. We provide comprehensive services that are cost effective and a nationwide solution for our credit union partners. ”

Linda Winkfein, Vice President, Lending Resources/Business Development was quoted as saying, “Repo Remarketing is a well-established and respected company, their dedication to delivering excellent service, superior technology functionality for better net returns is extremely beneficial to Texas credit unions.”

“Repo Remarketing has been in business for over 10 years, and they have a notable record of success in the aggregation of services for more cost effective planning to credit unions. The result creates marketplace liquidity and an excellent value for their clients. It’s obvious that they recognize the credit union philosophy and support it through the development and implementation of diverse solutions”, said Winkfein.
